

Interfaith Hospitality Network of Springfield operates the only emergency shelters for families and individuals in Clark County. In addition, IHN operates Transitional Housing and Permanent Supportive Housing. During 2018, IHN served 630 individuals, (138 of these were children), in the two emergency shelters.

IHN offers intensive goal setting case management, three meals daily, hygiene products, tutoring for school age children in partnership with Springfield City Schools, life skills workshops, AoD Counseling, shower and laundry facilities, and a safe secure playground for children in the family shelter.
